

Reported speech Future Tenses Exercises

Reported Speech Exercises Future Tense

Find here Direct and Indirect speech exercises for future tense. Though this is a single exercise but it is enough to give you basic understanding narration usage of future tense. Alternatively, you may browse this site further for all information related to reported speech, its rules and extensive practice exercises.

1. I said, "I will come tomorrow"

She said that she would come the next day.

She said that I would come the next day.

2. She said, "I will be working at office tomorrow"

She said that she would be working at office the next day.

She said that I would be working at office the next day.

3. Father said, "I will have written a letter"

Father said that he would have written a letter.

Father said that I would have written a letter.

4. I said to him, "I will have purchased new mobile tomorrow"

I told him that I would have purchased a new mobile the next day.

I told him that I would have been purchasing a new mobile tomorrow

Reported Speech Exercises

5. She said to me, "I will wait for your call"

She told me that she would wait for my call.

She told that I would wait for my call.

6. The old lady said, "You will top this exam"

The old lady said that you will top that exam.

The old lady said/wished that I would top that exam.

7. My mother said, "I will help solving this problem"

My mother said that she would help solving that problem.

My mother said that I would help solving that problem.

8. He said, "We will be covering each and every part of this match"

He said that he will be covering each and every part of this match.

He said that he would be covering each and every part of that match.

9. She said, "The university administration will have decided my future"

She said that the University administration would have decided her future.

She said that the university administration would have decided my future.

Reported Speech Exercises

10. I said, "I will be looking forward to your reply"

I said that I would be looking forward to your reply.

I said that I would be looking forward to his reply.

Reported Speech Exercise: Future Simple Tense.

Study and solve following direct and indirect speech exercise for future simple tense. This one is easy exercise for quick understanding for beginners' level learners.

I said, "I will help you"

I said that I would help him.

I said that I would help you.

She said, "He will surely come tomorrow"

She said that he would surely come tomorrow.

She said that he would surely come the next day.

He said, "I will apply for upcoming jobs"

He said that I will apply for upcoming jobs.

He said that he would apply for upcoming jobs.

Mother said, "I will try to convince your father"

Reported Speech Exercises

Mother said that I would try to convince your father.

Mother said that she would try to convince my father.

My sister said to me, "I will press your shirts"

My sister told me that she would press my shirts.

My sister told me that I would press your shirts.

They said, "We will come on time"

They said that we will come on time.

They said that they would come on time.

Mariya said, "I will listen carefully"

Mariya said that I would listen carefully.

Mariya said that she would listen carefully.

The old lady said, "I will struggle for justice"

The old lady said that I would struggle for justice.

The old lady said/resolved that she would struggle for justice.

She said, "I will help poor students"

She said that she would help poor students.

Reported Speech Exercises

She said that I would help poor students.

They said, "We will win the match"

They said that we would win the match.

They said that they would win the match.

<https://directindirectspeech.com>