

Reported Speech Exercise WH Questions

Reported Speech Exercises WH Questions

Practice with following direct and indirect speech exercises Wh question sentences for clearer understanding of narration rules and variation for interrogative sentences.

He said, "Why are you late today?"

He asked why I was late that day.

He asked why you was late that day.

She said, "Have you got your paper attested?"

She asked if I have got my paper attested.

She asked have I got my paper attested.

They said, "How can we reach early?"

They asked how they could reach early.

They asked that how they can reach early.

I said to them, "Can you give me more time?"

I asked them if they could give me more time.

I asked them if you can give more time.

Reported Speech Exercises

Mariya said, "What is the main reason of this mess?"

Mariya asked what was the main reason of that mess.

Mariya asked that what was the main reason of that mess.

She said, "Where are the boxes I left here?"

She asked where were the boxes she left there.

She asked that where were the boxes she left there.

He said to me, "Why are you so lazy?"

He asked me why I was so lazy.

He asked me that why was I so lazy.

She said to her father, "When are you coming home?"

She asked her father when he was coming home.

She asked her father that when he was coming home.

I said to old lady, "Why are you standing outside?"

I asked old lady that why are you standing outside

I asked old lady why she was standing outside.

The old man said to me, "How can I get my passport?"

The old man asked me how could he get his passport.

The old man asked that how can I get my passport.

=====

Reported Speech Exercises

2. Reported Speech Exercise Yes No questions.

Solve the following basic exercise direct and indirect speech for Yes or No questions. The exercise is solved with answers at the end.

She said to me, "Do you wish to meet my father?"

She asked me whether I wished to meet her father.

She asked me if you wish to meet my father.

He said to him, "Can I get another opportunity?"

He asked him that if he can get another opportunity.

He asked him whether he could get another opportunity.

They said, "Have you ever visited this part of city?"

They asked him if he had ever visited that part of city.

They asked him if he has ever visited that part of city.

I said to him, "Are you feeling lazy?"

I asked him if he was feeling lazy.

I asked him if you are feeling lazy.

She said to me, "Is there any hope left?"

She asked me that have you any hope left.

She asked him if there was any hope left.

I said to her, "Did you get your reports checked?"

Reported Speech Exercises

I asked her if she had got her reports checked.

I asked her if she has got her reports checked.

She said to me, "Could you help me?"

She asked me if I can help her.

She asked me if I could help her.

He said to me, "Do you wish to stay here more?"

He asked me whether I wished to stay there more.

He asked me whether I wish to stay there more.

They said to me, "Are you feeling alone here?"

They asked me that if i was feeling alone there.

They asked me whether I was feeling alone there.

Mariya said to me, "Have you ever thought to work alone?"

Mariya asked if I had ever thought to work alone.

Mariya asked if I have ever thought to work alone.

Reported Speech Exercise Interrogative Sentences

Direct and Indirect speech exercise for question sentences with solved answers at the end.

"Why are you sitting idle here", Mariya said.

Mariya asked why I was sitting idle there.

Mariya asked that why I was sitting idle there.

"How can I understand this sum", said the student.

The student asked how can I understand that sum.

The student asked how he could understand that sum.

He said, "What are the easy options available?"

He asked me that what are the easy options available.

He asked me what the easy options were available.

They said to Mariya, "Have you ever noted the thief entering the house?"

They asked Mariya if she has ever noted the thief entering the house.

They asked Mariya if she had ever noted the thief entering the house.

She said, "What is the fault of mine?"

She asked what was the fault of mine.

Reported Speech Exercises

She asked what was the fault of her.

He said, "Are you ready to take a challenge?"

He asked me whether I was ready to take a challenge.

He asked me if I am ready to take a challenge.

She said to me, "Why are you feeling lazy?"

She asked me why are you feeling lazy.

She asked me if I was feeling lazy.

I said to him, "Can u bring me a glass of water?"

I asked him whether he could bring me a glass of water.

I asked him whether he can bring me a glass of water.

They said, "What are the main factors bringing water shortage?"

They asked what were the main factors bringing water shortage.

They asked that what were the main factors brining water shortage.

He said to me, "Why politician are so cruel.

He asked me why politician are so cruel

He asked me that why politician are so cruel.